

For release 9/2/22

Marketing Contact:

Sara Haren

Sh255601@gmail.com

Aaron Lewis: Frayed at Both Ends, The Acoustic Tour, Returning to Secrest Auditorium & Music Hall November 2nd

Zanesville, OH- Musician Aaron Lewis returns to Secrest Auditorium & Music Hall on November 2nd at 7PM. Tickets go on sale September 9th at 10AM. Ticket prices range from $39-$125 and can be purchased at DustyGuitar.com or the Secrest Auditorium box office. Doors open at 5:30PM. The Zanesville Jaycees Bud Light Basement Pre-Party will take place prior to the concert, featuring Zanesville's own, The River Rats.

AARON LEWIS BIO

Aaron Lewis grew up in Springfield, Vermont, listening to his grandparents' country 8-tracks. Those roots inspired the multi-platinum Staind founder to return to his origins for the #1 Billboard Country Album debut Town Line and Sinner, as well as Billboard's #1 Hot Country Song debut "Am I The Only One," only the 9th time since 1958.

Having recorded with George Jones, Willie Nelson, Charlie Daniels, Alison Krauss and Vince Gill, Lewis has put a traditionalist brand on his outlier country. Frayed At Both Ends offers the hard touring/15-million selling workingman's country star at his most personal and unplugged – making for an intimate record that reflects his Frayed At Both Ends, The Acoustic Tour show.

Artist: Aaron Lewis

Tour: Frayed At Both Ends, The Acoustic Tour

Where: Secrest Auditorium & Music Hall

When: November 2, 2022 7PM

Ticket Information: DustyGuitar.com $39-$125

